Spring 2017 Brown Bag Lectures
All lectures are at noon in Barnard Observatory.

Wednesday, Feb. 1: Ed Croom on The Land of Rowan Oak

Monday, Feb. 27: Mary Battle on Public Awareness of Slavery & its Legacies in Charleston

Wednesday, March 1: Kathleen Bond on Diarist William Johnson, Race, Class, & Understanding Old Natchez

Wednesday, March 8: Benjamin DuPriest on Contemporary Ethnomusicology in Mississippi

Wednesday, March 22: Carter Dalton Lyon on Sanctuaries of Segregation: The Story of the Jackson Church Visit Campaign

Radical South Month
Thursday, April 6: Ellen Spears on Writing Histories of Environmentalism in the U.S. South

Wednesday, April 12: Byron D’Andra Orey - "Does the Confederate Flag Make You Sick?"

Monday, April 17: Wesley Hogan on Oral History Traditions in Southern Freedom Movements

Wednesday, April 26: Eva Walton Kendrick on LGTQ Advocacy in the Alabama State House

SOUTHERNSTUDIES.OLEMISS.EDU